JONATHAN RICHARDSON, a.k.a.
AUTUMN CORDELLIONÉ,

Plaintiff,

v.

COMMISSIONER, INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION, in his official capacity,

Defendant.

Cause No. 3:23-cv-135-RLY-CSW

Docketing Statement of Appellant

In compliance with Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 3 and Seventh Circuit Rule 3(c), Defendant Commissioner, Indiana Department of Correction, in his official capacity, submits this Docketing Statement.

1. Statement of District Court Jurisdiction: Plaintiff Jonathan Richardson, a.k.a. Autumn Cordellionè, filed this action for declaratory and injunctive relief, alleging that Indiana Code § 11-10-3-3.5—which provides that the Indiana Department of Correction may not use any resources to provide sexual reassignment surgery to offenders—violates the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution. Dkt. 1. On September 9, 2023, Plaintiff moved for a preliminary injunction on those claims. Dkt. 10. Although Plaintiff’s claims raise a federal question concerning civil rights sufficient to confer jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343, the Commissioner argued in the District Court that Plaintiff lacks standing. Dkt. 58.

2. Statement of Appellate Jurisdiction: On September 17, 2024, the District Court issued an order granting Plaintiff’s motion for preliminary injunction on both the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment grounds, Dkt. 96, and preliminary enjoined Defendant, Dkt. 97. Defendant appealed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit Dkt. 98; Dkt. 99. The Court of Appeals has jurisdiction over that appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 1292(a)(1).

The Prison Litigation Reform Act provides that preliminary injunctive relief “automatically expire[s] on the date that is 90 days after its entry, unless the court makes the findings required under subsection (a)(1) for the entry of the prospective relief and makes the order final before the expiration of the 90-day period.” 18 U.S.C. § 3626(a)(2). Although Plaintiff observed that the September 17, 2024, preliminary injunction is arguably supported by requisite findings “such that an extension of the preliminary injunction . . . is not necessary,” Plaintiff filed an emergency motion to renew the preliminary injunction on December 3, 2024. Dkt. 119 at 1-2. On December 6, 2024, the District Court granted the motion and issued an order renewing the preliminary injunction, Dkt. 121. A timely notice of appeal from the order renewing the preliminary injunction Dkt. 121, was filed contemporaneously with a docketing statement on December 9, 2024. Dkt. 123, 124.

Plaintiff filed a second motion to renew or extend preliminary injunction on February 10, 2025, Dkt. 147. On March 5, 2025, the District Court granted the motion and issued an order renewing the preliminary injunction. Dkt. 159. In the March 5 order, the District Court found that the Plaintiff was likely to succeed on the Eighth Amendment claim only. Id. A timely notice of appeal from the order renewing the preliminary injunction, Dkt. 159, is being filed contemporaneously with a docketing statement on March 17, 2025. The Court of Appeals has jurisdiction over this appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 1292(a)(1).

This is not a direct appeal from the decision of a magistrate judge. No Rule 59(e) Motion to Alter or Amend Judgment or other motion tolling the time for filing a Notice of Appeal has been filed. The merits of this case remain pending in the district court.

3. Prior or Related Appellate Proceedings: This appeal is related to Defendant's appeals of the September 17, 2024, preliminary injunction and the December 6, 2024, order renewing the preliminary injunction. Those appeals are pending before the Court of Appeals under Docket Nos. 24-2838 & 24-3240 (7th Cir.), respectively, and have been consolidated. All three appeals are also related to K.C. v. Individual Members of the Medical Licensing Board, No. 23-2366 (7th Cir.), insofar as all concern whether laws regulating gender-transition procedures are subject to rational-basis review under the Fourteenth Amendment.

4. Current Occupants of Offices Appearing in Their Official Capacities: The current Commissioner of the Indiana Department of Correction is Lloyd Arnold.

Respectfully submitted,

ORDER RENEWING OR EXTENDING PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Plaintiff having filed her Motion to Renew or Extend Preliminary Injunction, and the court having read the motion and being duly advised finds that good cause exists to renew or extend the previously entered preliminary injunction and the renewed preliminary injunction in this case. Dkts. 97, 121. The court therefore incorporates its Preliminary Injunction of September 17, 2024, and Order Renewing Preliminary Injunction of December 6, 2024, as these Orders relate to her Eighth Amendment claim. The court's basis for its ruling is explained in its Order Granting Motion for Preliminary Injunction of September 17, 2024. Dkt. 96.

The Court finds that plaintiff Autumn Cordellioné has demonstrated a reasonable likelihood of success on the merits of her Eighth Amendment claim that Indiana Code § 11-10-3-3.5—which bans gender-affirming surgery for transgender inmates—is unconstitutional, both on its face and as applied to her. Specifically, Ms. Cordellioné has shown that her gender dysphoria is a serious medical need, and that, despite other treatments Defendant has provided her to treat her gender dysphoria, she requires gender-affirming surgery to prevent a risk of serious bodily and psychological harm. Thus, she has demonstrated a reasonable likelihood of success in demonstrating that denying her gender-affirming surgery violates the Eighth Amendment as it denies her necessary medical care to address a serious medical need.

The court also finds that Plaintiff has demonstrated that she is suffering irreparable harm and will continue to suffer such harm unless she is provided gender-affirming surgery. When balancing this harm against the harm Defendant would face if preliminary relief were granted, and when the impact of preliminary relief on the public is considered, the court finds that the balance of harms favors the issuance of a preliminary injunction.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Commissioner of the Indiana Department of Correction, in his official capacity, is hereby preliminarily enjoined to take all reasonable actions to secure plaintiff gender-affirming surgery at the earliest opportunity.

Defendant shall file his status report within 30 days as to all actions taken and the timetable for surgery. No bond shall be required.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
